I ran a day long retreat at Pearlstone retreat center, from the minute we arrived the food, hospitality, staff, and the spaces, were already beautifully set up and ready for us to go. The staff anticipated our every need and were able to quickly pivot if we had a change in our schedule. We utilized both the outdoor space and the indoor spaces for our breakout sessions and were able to engage our participants to the maximum having so many choices and different spaces to learn in. I would come to Pearlstone again and couldn't recommend them more!

The food at Pearlstone is simply exceptional. Fresh farm-to-table kosher meals are served elegantly—not an easy task when feeding a large group! The food is not only delicious, but chock full of all of the nutrients needed to take care of your body and enjoy your time while onsite. Many of our participants wished they could eat everyday like they ate at Pearlstone!
